

Sick and tired of same old

I am sick and tired of the same old in Lansing. I watch our so called leaders argue back and forth and blame each other while our jobs are leaving and Michigan families are struggling to get by. Enough is enough. We need new leadership. That is why I am voting for Holly Hughes this November. Holly is a small business owner who has actually created jobs in West Michigan unlike her opponent. Holly has the background and experience to get Michigan moving in the right direction. We need her business voice to change
